The image shows the musical score for 'Millionaire's Hoedown'. It is written for violin and piano. The key signature has one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 2/4. The score is divided into four systems. The first system starts with a G chord and includes the lyrics 'Oh, did - dy, pretty, did - dy, come'. The second system includes 'go along with me, pretty, good - by, did - dy, come'. The third system includes 'go along with me, before me get'. The fourth system includes 'me - rid me please - me to me.' The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings.

C INSTRUMENTS

THE REAL BLUEGRASS BOOK

The true bluegrass guys know what I'm talking about, while some of you may never have noticed this small variation in a C chord. See the example below that illustrates this small variation. Ex 1. After completing your order, you will receive an email from the request confirmation, where a download link will be presented for you to get the notes. If you selected -1 semitone for the scoring originally in C, the transposition to B would be made. Many disregard this aspect of music when they choose a Jam Session. The minimum amount of purchase required for these notes is 1. * Please make sure that the transposition is possible before completing your purchase. First, a beginner version of the melody and then a longer version full of legal variations. You can follow the link from the fanum in the main menu. If it is completely white, simply click on it and appear the following options: Original, 1 Semitone, 2 Semitones, 3 Semitones, -1 semitons, -2 semitons, -3 semitons. It has direct chords forward, a memorable melody, and the form of recognizable violin melody. Nothing personal against hot licks, but for me, the challenge is to create soft lines in open position that are arthologic, melobelic and convincing. Thank you very much!
